

Northwest Workforce Service Area Letter 106

Subject: WIA Participant Individual Service Strategy

Issuance Date: 1 January 2004, Revised 1 July 2008

Effective Date: 1 January 2004

Action: Program provider staff need to be aware of this policy concerning the development of a participant Individual Service Strategy (ISS) and the implementation of this strategy.

Who: Workforce Investment Board, Local Elected Official Board Members, Program Providers.

Background: The attached forms have been established and approved by the NWPIC to assist the program participant in development of an Individual Service Strategy leading to the unsubsidized employment of the participant or to the participant completing employment related goals thus enhancing their long term employability.

1. Pre-ISS Roadblocks to Employment
2. Individual Service Strategy
3. Progress Notes

Policy and Procedures

All the forms must be completed and be in the client file at the Program Provider location. The WIA client Individual Service Strategy series are to be completed in three stages. Only forms authorized by the NWPIC/Workforce Investment Board are to be utilized in the development of the ISS.

1. The Pre-ISS Roadblocks to Employment (Attachment A) is to be completed by the participant upon entry into the program. This form identifies the clients views of his/her problems in finding employment and help to provide the case manager with an understanding of the client. The Pre-ISS Roadblocks to Employment is to be reviewed with the client and the case manager should annotate any additional information obtained as a result of a review of this form.
2. The Individual Service Strategy (Attachment B) is to be completed by the case manager and the client in accordance with the instructions provided in attachment 2. It is a compilation of assessment results and establishes the plan to assist the client reach immediate and long range training and employment goals. This form should be viewed as a living document that should always be current with any changes to the client individual service plan. Both the case manager and the client must sign this agreement to acknowledge their agreement to the services that are to be provided as well as the time frame to complete these services.

3. The Progress Notes form (Attachment C) is to be utilized as a follow-up form recording the client's activities as they occur. Computer generated progress notes may be utilized in lieu of this form. The NWPIC has mandated contact with the client at a minimum of once every month, although more frequent contact should be the stated goal. Contact with the client may be accomplished through personal contact, letters, telephone calls, e-mail or through any combination of the above. The results of each contact must be documented in the client's progress notes and included in the client case file.

INDIVIDUAL SERVICE STRATEGY

(ISS)

AND INSTRUCTIONS

FOR COMPLETING THE ISS

Northwest Private Industry Council

Instructions for Completing the Individual Service Strategy

The clients complete name and social security number are to be entered on the top line.

Items 1 to 7: These items are to be completed by the Case Manager and the information in this section should be shared with the client. This section calls for short responses as a recap of the information in other areas of the client record. All items identified by the Case Manager in the ISS should be retained in their entirety in other parts of the client record.

1. Immediate Goal: The clients immediate or short-term employment and/or training goal is to be listed here.

Long Range Goal: This is the goal where the client would like to be at upon the completion of training or at a later stage in his/her life.

2. Basic Skills Test: This item should record the type of basic skills test used to test such skills as math and reading levels taken by the client within the past two years. CASAS and Slosson would be examples of basic skills tests. The date the test was given and a synopsis of the results of the test are to be included in this item.
3. Interest Inventory: This item should record the type of interest inventory taken by the client within the past two years. MCIS or USES would be examples of this type of assessment. The date the interest inventory was given and a synopsis of the results are to be included in this item.
4. Aptitude Test: This item should record the type of aptitude tests taken by the client within the past two years. Choices CT and the GATB would be examples of this type of test. The date the aptitude test was given and a synopsis of the results are to be included in this item.
5. Education Transcript: This item should show whether or not the client has completed any post-secondary education by responding with a yes or no. If the response is yes, the number of credits completed and the cumulative Grade Point Average should be listed. For high school students the most recent transcript should be used.
6. Marketable Work Skills: Either yes or no should be checked in this area to indicate whether or not the objective assessment indicates that the client has work skills that are marketable in today's economy.
7. Labor Market Information: This area should indicate where the labor market information was obtained. Examples of sources are ISEEK, Choices CT and MCIS. The items on placement potential, wage potential, education requirements and skill requirements should each include a brief synopsis of the information found utilizing the source material.

SUMMARY: This should include a brief statement of the client's current situation and should include such information as age, family status, work history, educational history, welfare status and other related items clarifying their situation.

NEEDS: This area should be used to identify the needs of the client to accomplish their stated training and/or employment goals. The needs for training services and for support services should be identified in this area. Care should be taken to identify any barriers to successful completion of identified goals in this section.

STEP: This area calls for the listing of all steps needed to reach the client's stated training and/or educational goals. Space is provided to establish the time frame for the accomplishment of each step, who is responsible for the completion of each step, and the date the step is actually completed.

Each step is to be developed as a joint effort between the client and the Case Manager using the information derived from the objective assessment, the appropriate labor market information and the personal data gathered about the client.

This is a living document and steps can be added as necessary on an on-going basis to take into account the ever changing situation of the client reflecting the new realities needed to successfully accomplish the planned objectives.

Upon initial completion of the original document, the Individual Service Strategy (ISS) is to be signed and dated by both the client and the Case Manager. The client is to receive a copy of the ISS and the original is to be placed in the client record. Updates to the ISS should at a minimum be initialed and dated by the client in the client record. Substantial changes to the ISS should repeat the initial process but minor updates to the ISS should at a minimum be initialed and dated by the client in the client record.
